

Gustavo Cunha

Bachelor's degree in Computer Science and Specialist in Computer Software Engineering, I've been working with Web Development since 2003 and currently I'm a Software Engineer at KPN. Since 2010, I'm an enthusiast of Mobile Development and iOS certified developer since 2012 by IDS Tecnologia, first Apple Authorized Training Center in Latin America.

I like to work in group, research new things, come with solutions to solve problems, especially the tough ones. I enjoy challenges.

Fluent in: English, Portuguese
